Monarch Society

Ray Graham Association's Monarch Society is designed to honor and recognize family members, friends, individuals and other generous donors who have remembered Ray Graham Association in their estate plans.

Making a gift to Ray Graham Association through your will is a powerful way to ensure that the compassionate and professional services provided today to children and adults with disabilities will continue to be there in the future helping all to reach, grow, and achieve.

Making a bequest through a will or a living trust is very simple. If you are seeking the assistance of an attorney or similar professional to create a will or trust document, please provide them with the language indicated below. If you already have a will or trust, there is no need to rewrite your documents. You simply add an amendment, called a codicil, to your will or trust document.

"I give, devise and bequeath to Ray Graham Association for People with Disabilities, the sum of _____ dollars ($_____) for the benefit of its general support (or specify the specific program you wish to support)."

Instead of naming a specific amount, you may also state a percentage of your estate after the remainder of your estate has provided for your heirs.
